

Dr. Pitt current serves as a Clinical Assistant Professor at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center, Department of Pediatrics, Section of Adolescent Medicine. She earned a Doctoral degree in psychology from Texas Woman's University, Master's degree in counseling from the University of North Texas, a graduate certificate in Applied Behavior Analysis from the University of North Texas, and a Bachelor's degree in psychology from the University of Texas at Dallas. She completed internship and fellowship at the Center for Psychological Development and Applied Psychology Group of Texoma where she focused on psychological and neuropsychological assessment across the lifespan, as well as provided individual and family psychotherapy. Most of Dr. Pitt's academic training and practice has been in working with children and adolescents. Dr. Pitt is currently licensed as a Psychologist, Nationally Certified School Psychologist, Health Service Psychologist, and Licensed Specialist in School Psychology. Additionally, she is board certified in School Neuropsychology.